Dinner in Restaurant Hotel Quintamar
Overnight in Hotel Quintamar

DAY 2 (November 26th)

-9:00 am We depart from Ciudad Valles
-10:00 am Pit stop where you will have the option to try the region's cinnamon bread with coffee. (Optional Consumption and at the tourist's expense)
-11:00 am Arrival to the magical town of Xilitla where we will visit the Surrealist Edward

James Garden and we will tour its installations, all while the tour guide will tell us about the life of this eccentric character and the surrounding structures.

-3:00 pm Food in Xilitla, a charming town that houses some fancy architecture and the last American jungle. Located in a coffee growing area, this magical town has plenty of quality restaurants that will allow us to sample and enjoy the local food.

-4:30 pm Pit stop where you will have the opportunity to try the local artisanal ice cream, considered by most as the best in the region, they have a large variety of flavors that could conquer your taste buds. (Optional Consumption and at the tourist's expense)

-5:30 pm We will visit the Cave of the Swallow, considered the most spectacular in Mexico and the sixth deepest abyss in the world, with 512 meters of depth, of which 376 are freefall.

This is a great vertical hollowness of karstic origin, formed by water erosion during millions of years of molding the rock. This place is a natural refuge of many kinds of birds, namely the white collared swift, often mistaken by a swallow (hence the name of the cave) as well as parrots, parakeets, and quilas.

-7:00 pm We will hike back to the vehicle for a snack and to return to Ciudad Valles.

-8:30 pm We arrive to Ciudad Valles

- 9:00 pm Dinner at Hotelquintamar

Overnight at Hotelquintamar

Day 3 (November 27th)

-9:00 am We depart from Ciudad Valles

-10:30 am Arrival to the Tanchachin village, meaning place of the birds in the Teenek language. In this place we will find the Tampaon river with its turquoise waters. This river is one of the top 10 most scenic and clean rivers of North America.

-10:40 am Presentation. Our guides in charge of Rafting are accredited by the Federal Secretary of Tourism for said activity and each one of them has their certification by the international rafting federation. They are in charge of providing and helping us properly wear the necessary gear for the activity along with a talk reinforcing the 4 international rafting rules.

-11:00 am Following the introductory talk, we will enter the river where our rafting guide will give us a talk on the commands to be used on the raft and we will have some practice in order to better coordinate us.

-12:00 pm The calm river section will end and we will navigate into the canyon where the rapids section will begin, this part of the tour is the most fun and most scenic and will have a great variety of fauna to observe.

-2:00 pm We will rendezvous at the Puente de Dios bridge of the Tampaon River, a great limestone formation that blocks the river forcing it to go under it. We will walk across to the other side of the river, and once we have all made it across the tour guides will indicate how to return to the raft.

-2:30 pm We will begin the final section of calm water, and we will be able to fully appreciate the canyon while we head towards the river exit.

-3:00 pm End of rafting. Food awaits us at the river bank.

-5:30 pm We arrive to Ciudad Valles

-8:00 pm Dinner at Hotel Quintamar

Overnight at Hotel Quintamar

Day 4 (November 28th)

9:00 am We depart from Ciudad Valles

Packing List

What to bring

- Adjustable watersandals (no flip-flops) and/or sneakers (minimum 2 pairs because 1 pair is going to get wet) or watershoes, NO CROCS!
- Light shorts or trousers. NO JEANS!
- Shirts that preferably are NOT made of cotton. (Any other material dries faster)
- A hat for the sun, sunblock, mosquito repellent.
- Towel (not too big), toiletry kit
- flashlight/headlamp
- Camera (you CANNOT bring it during water activities unless it's waterproof)
- Small backpack (for your camera, personal items, etc.)
- Lycra tights are ideal for rafting to prevent the occasional scrapes
- Ensure that your luggage is as light as possible and mark your belongings
- If you wear glasses, make sure you won't lose them by attaching a necklace to them, remember, there are activities that require jumping into water. You can improvise a necklace with a shoelace. Bring one just in case
- Bring hairbands if you have long hair. Especially if you're going to do rappel
- Personal First Aid Kit. Our guides are certified in First Aid and we always bring a First Aid Kit, however, for your own safety, we are not allowed to distribute medicine. For this reason we advise you to bring your own.

- Bring a complete set of dry clothes with you. One set will get completely wet.
