POST-ADVENTURE 1

Bocas del Toro

“An escape to Panamá”

Beginning from Colon Island, Bocas del Toro Archipelago, Playa Tortuga features a private beachfront pier and tropical beaches. From watching dolphins or turtles, go snorkeling among the coral reefs or go fishing in the turquoise waters, monkey and manatee sighting, diving through a harvest of Cacao along with a Panamanian indigenous people.

From Feb 12 to Feb 15

Ecocircuitos

POST-ADVENTURE 2

Guna Yala

Live life in paradise!

Travel to Guna Yala, a political nation within Panama with its own language, culture, laws and territory. There wasn't a single road connecting Guna Yala with the rest of Panama (not until 2007). It's populated by its Indigenous group known as "Gunas", that made efforts to preserve their identity, and their control over the San Blas Archipelago which has made it possible to keep this region as the pristine paradise it is today.

POST-ADVENTURE 3

This province offers the best areas for adventure and nature. Awake with the trilling of fascinating birds, the opportunity to explore trails and unique hanging bridges on the mountains, as well as the chance to taste exquisite cuisine.

Dates: from Feb 12 to 16
